Purpose and aims

At Kennington Primary School we believe that it is important that children:

- Take pride in all the work they attempt.
- Present work in a manner appropriate to the subject, the purpose and the audience for which it is needed.
- Be taught presentation skills in a planned way, with progression and continuity across the whole school.
- Have high quality materials appropriate to age and need.
- Are encouraged to appreciate their materials and look after them.
- Are made aware of the expectations which should be appropriate to age and ability.
- Are positively encouraged to constantly achieve the standards set and be rewarded for their efforts.

Staff will:

- Teach children the skills required for presenting work.
- Encourage children to take a pride in their work.
- Remind children regularly of the expected standards.
- Use the guidance flexibly for children with SEN.
- Acknowledge and reward children's efforts.
- Set high standards of presenting work for children and in displays.

Guidelines

- The grid below should be used by all staff to ensure that high standards in presentation are consistent throughout school.
